

Know my rights as a child

The Rights of a Child

- Children have rights to basic requirements for survival – water, food, home, education, health and play.
- Children have rights to be protected from all risks to their well-being
- Children have rights to be developed to their full potential.
- Children have rights to participate in decisions and actions which affect them.

The Digital Rights of a Child

- Children have rights to physical access to digital media.
- Children have rights to financial access to digital media.
- Children have rights to the skills to access digital media.
- Children have a right to access services and information online that are accessible to them.
- Children have a right to be safe online and be supported if they come to harm.