1. Supplier Code of Conduct

1.1 The Supplier Code of Conduct (this “Code”) sets out the minimum standards that each supplier of products or services to a member of the MTN Group of companies (“MTN”) must comply with. A supplier also includes any person or entity that provides goods or services to third parties as a result of an agreement with MTN or through the use of any facilities, network or services made available by MTN. The supplier must also ensure that its own employees, suppliers, service and product providers, subcontractors and all other persons or entities under its control comply with this Code.

1.2 The objective of this Code is to provide clear and concise information detailing the required minimum standards expected of every supplier in their interaction with MTN and its representatives.

1.3 The Code is not intended to change or replace the terms or conditions of any contract you may have with MTN. Rather, this Code establishes the basic principles for business conduct which we expect from suppliers. Irrespective of this document, if a contract between MTN and the supplier or local laws and regulations contains stricter or additional requirements than this Code, then we expect you to meet those more stringent and additional requirements.

1.4 The Code is aimed at helping the current and continued implementation of our commitment to international standards such as the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development Guidelines for multinational enterprises, the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, the United Nations Global Compact, the Carbon Disclosure Project standard and the Core Conventions of the International Labour Organisation.

1.5 MTN strives to conduct business with suppliers who share our commitment to high ethical standards and operate in a responsible and ethical manner.

1.6 MTN may verify a supplier’s compliance with this Code by performing audits or other assessments of the supplier’s facilities, records and business processes. In addition to other rights and remedies that MTN may have, violation of this Code may result in the disqualification and the termination of the business relationship between the supplier and MTN.

1.7 This Code is divided into the following key topics and themes:

- Ethics
- Labour, social and human rights
- Health, safety and environment
- Operations
- Violations

1.8 Acknowledgement of, and agreement to, this Code is necessary and a prerequisite for any supplier intending to work or do business with MTN. Suppliers shall ensure that they are properly onboarded by MTN to aid in the delivery of the relevant products or services and be compliant with this Code.

2. Ethics

The supplier is expected to act with integrity and conduct its business ethically and responsibly in every aspect and in its dealings with MTN, including sourcing, relationships and operations. Ethical requirements include the following:

2.1 Act ethically: Anti-fraud and zero tolerance

The supplier shall conduct business in accordance with the highest ethical standards and require the same compliance throughout its entire supply chain. The supplier shall demonstrate a zero-tolerance policy and practices prohibiting any and all forms of corruption and bribery. All business dealings should be transparently performed and accurately reflected within the business records. MTN encourages suppliers to choose their business partners carefully and only after conducting a thorough background check.

2.2 Act Ethically: Responsible Marketing & Advertising

Third-party suppliers must uphold the same standards set out in the MTN Responsible Marketing and Advertising Policy. This includes service providers and vendors performing services on behalf of MTN and/or supporting MTN services, as well as all partners, intermediaries, agents, contractors, suppliers, and business partners supplying products and services which may have a bearing on the MTN brand.

The MTN Responsible Marketing & Advertising Policy is committed to maintaining the trusted position and integrity of the MTN brand. All communications with the public, including marketing efforts, embody respect and a sense of responsibility. MTN customers are at the centre of everything we do, and we strive to build strong, mutually beneficial relationships with them. MTN marketing is legal, decent, honest, truthful and prepared with a sense of respect and responsibility to MTN's consumers and stakeholders.

2.3 Anti-bribery and corruption

The supplier shall never, directly or through intermediaries, offer or promise any personal or improper advantage in order to obtain or retain business or other advantage from a third party, whether public or private. The supplier will not pay or accept bribes and facilitation payments or arrange or accept kickbacks and shall not take any actions to violate or cause its business partners to violate any applicable anti-bribery laws and regulations.

2.4 Conflict of interest

The supplier shall avoid any actual or perceived conflicts of interest. The supplier shall not deal directly with any MTN representative whose spouse, domestic partner or other family member or relative holds a significant financial interest in the supplier. In the course of negotiating an agreement with MTN or performing the supplier's obligations, dealing directly with a spouse, domestic partner or other family member or relative employed by MTN is also prohibited. Suppliers shall declare potential conflicts of interest as they arise throughout the year. Suppliers shall be transparent about potential conflicts of interest and disclose them in writing to MTN.

2.5 Receiving of gifts and benefits

The supplier shall avoid giving gifts to MTN representatives because even a well-intentioned gift might constitute a bribe under certain circumstances or create conflicts of interest. Do not offer anything of value to obtain or retain a benefit or advantage for the giver, and do not offer anything that might appear to influence, compromise judgement or obligate the employee. If offering gifts, meals or entertainment to MTN representatives, always use good judgement, discretion and moderation.

2.6 Anti-Money Laundering (AML)

Suppliers are expected to comply with all applicable regulatory and legal requirements relating to AML. MTN advocates for the prevention and detection of money laundering and financing of terrorism. The supplier shall provide their employees and personnel with a workplace free of harsh and inhumane treatment and free from any form of sexual harassment, sexual, physical and other forms of abuse, corporal punishment or torture, mental or physical coercion or verbal abuse of employees and personnel, or the threat of any such treatment. The supplier is expected not to unfairly terminate any employment contract (or similar contract with a member of its personnel).

The supplier shall abstain from any form of harassment or discrimination against MTN or its own employees; this includes but is not limited to verbal, sexual or physical harassment, bullying, intimidation and embarrassment.

3.5 Wages, benefits and working hours

The supplier shall ensure that its employees and personnel work in compliance with all applicable laws and mandatory industry standards pertaining to regular working hours and overtime hours, including breaks, rest periods, holidays and maternity and paternity leave. Suppliers must strive towards meeting the ILO standard of 48 hours per week by reducing their working hours.

The supplier shall ensure that employees and personnel receive at least the minimum compensation or living wage, benefits and overtime payments required by law. Even where overtime is allowed by law, the supplier will ensure that employees and personnel do not work excessive overtime.

3.6 Social

MTN strives for the inclusion of the marginalised and disadvantaged members of society, with a specific focus on youth, women and persons who are differently-abled. MTN expects that the supplier undertakes the same commitment, making a sustainable and lasting impact in the communities and clearly demonstrating alignment with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

3.7 Freedom of association, expression, privacy and security

MTN believes in the rights of all people to freely communicate and share information and opinions and to enjoy the right to privacy and information security without interference. MTN will endeavour to protect the rights of all people using its services in the respective jurisdictions in which it operates.

All the applicable laws and regulations related to hazardous materials, chemicals and substances shall be strictly followed. The supplier shall comply with material restrictions and product safety requirements set by applicable laws and regulations. The supplier shall ensure that key employees are aware of and trained in product safety practices, environmental hazards, risks and impact management.

4.6 Climate Protection Governance and Performance
